

Gylfi Sigfusson

Gylfi Sigfússon was appointed as Eimskip President in May 2008. He had then served as a manager within the company and related subsidiaries for 18 years. Gylfi graduated from the University of Iceland Business. He was the manager of marketing and operations at TVG from 1990-1996, Ambrosio Shipping from 1996-2000 and lead Eimskip Logistics in the United States from 2000-2006. The last two years before being appointed Eimskip's President, Gylfi managed Eimskip Americas, overseeing all of Eimskip's transport operations in the United States and Canada.