

Robert Sheldon

Robert Sheldon facilitates infrastructure and related operating business development in Alaska, Iceland and Greenland. He is presently the Director of Business Development for the Venture North Group. The Venture North Group is the only Alaskan based full service merger and acquisition as well as capital raising firm. Mr. Sheldon has allocated capital, structured finance and championed economic development for both public and private organizations. He was a founding principal of the second largest Alaskan SEC Registered Investment Advisor firm. Previous to this he was an officer at the Trust Department of an Alaskan bank, where he oversaw the employee profit sharing plan and private client relationships, assisted in management of the common investment fund, was a member of the Trust Investment Committee and a partner in the bank's Investment Unit. Mr. Sheldon served the past four governors of Alaska in various official capacities. He is currently a commissioner for the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct. Previously, he was a director for the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority, a director for the Alaska Energy Authority, and a convener for several Alaska international trade efforts. Additionally, he has served as a director for several Alaskan remote logistics and service corporations including jet air service, air-motive, fuel distribution & sales, hotel and grocery. His extensive business experience, coupled with his passion for global finance and economics, has lead to a wide-ranging network of global contacts and transaction flow. A lifelong Alaskan, Mr. Sheldon earned a B.S. in Finance and a minor in Economics from Colorado State.